(Case called)

THE DEPUTY CLERK: For the plaintiff.

MR. GLANC: Nehemiah Glanc of Aaron Richard Golub, PC for both plaintiffs.

THE COURT: Thank you.

And appearing today for defendant. Which defendant are you appearing for?

MR. CHAUBEY: Your Honor, I represent Jonathan Anand
and other entities doing business as Homeless Penthouse, Penthouse Theory, High Doubt Inc. and Incognito. Good afternoon, your Honor.

THE COURT: Good afternoon.

Also, on the telephone line, who do I have?

MR. LEONG: Your Honor, this Dylan Jovan Leong. I am representing myself and my two entities, The Penthouse Theory and The Penthouse Collective.

THE COURT: Good afternoon, Mr. Leong. I'm going to tell you what you already know. So this is where we are in this case, and this should all be known to everyone in the case because they have been in the case through this. So the action was commenced on November 18th, 2021. And thereafter, there was a motion to dismiss filed by the so-called Singapore defendants, and the Singapore defendants were Mr. Leong, an entity called The Penthouse Theory and a second entity called The Penthouse Collective. And the Court issued a 20-page

NlHGdonC

1 opinion and order on September 22nd, 2022 denying the three 2 defendants' motion to dismiss. Thereafter, counsel for the 3 three defendants -- meaning Mr. Leong individually, The 4 Penthouse Theory and The Penthouse Collective sought an 5 extension of time to answer or move in this case, and the Court
6 granted that.

7 During the period of adjournment, counsel for Leong
8 and the two entities moved to withdraw as counsel. And he 9 submitted a declaration in which he attached an email to 10 Mr. Leong, in which he pointed out that, despite my multiple 11 requests, you have not fulfilled your financial obligations.
12 In addition, you advise that you will not answer the complaint.
13 Please take notice that if these two issues are not resolved by 14 October 11, 2022, this law firm will move to withdraw as 15 counsel. And as noted, they did. And they recited that the 16 lawyer was advised by the clients, the three defendants --
17 Leong, The Penthouse Theory and The Penthouse Collective -- 18 that they would not be able to answer the complaint after 19 consulting with their Singapore counsel. We are not at liberty
20 to discuss the legal reasons behind the clients' decision based 21 on their Singapore counsel's advice.

22 Well, on November 14th, the Court granted the motion
23 to withdraw. And in that order granting the motion to 24 withdraw, I set today's conference. And the Court in solid 25 caps, boldface wrote, "The defendant, The Penthouse Theory and

NlHGdonC

1 The Penthouse Collective appear to be entities and are not
2 individual persons, and therefore, are not permitted to appear
3 in this court except through an attorney who is admitted to 4 practice in this court. Defendants, The Penthouse Theory and 5 The Penthouse Collective, shall cause a notice of appearance to 6 be filed by an attorney admitted to practice in this court on 7 or before January 4, 2023 and said attorney shall appear at the 8 January 17th, 2023 2:00 p.m. hearing. Failure to comply will 9 result in striking the nonappearing defendants' answer and the 10 entry of a default judgment against it." The order goes on to 11 say that, "Dylan Jovan Leong shall appear at the January 17,
12 2023 2:00 p.m. conference in person or by an attorney admitted
13 to practice before this court. Failure to comply will result
14 in striking Dylan Jovan Leong's answer and the entry of a 15 default judgment." And I ordered that my order be served on 16 the defendants, and it was so served and I have a declaration
17 of service that was filed on November 18th, 2022.

18 On last Friday, the last business day before this 19 conference, at approximately 1:00 o'clock in the afternoon, 20 1:06 in the afternoon, I received an email from Mr. Leong in 21 which he sought an adjournment or alternatively to participate
22 by telephone. And he claims that he cannot attend in person
23 because he is a student living in Singapore without resources
24 to fly to New York and that he it 9,521 miles away.

25 Well, most certainly, Mr. Leong knew he was not

NlHGdonC

1 attending today before he asked for this conference to be
2 adjourned. And he never asked for an adjournment before last
3 Friday at 1:00 o'clock in the afternoon.

4 The Court has received no communication from any 5 lawyer on behalf of either of the entities. And if Mr. Leong
6 didn't know it before, he knew it as a result of my 7 November 14th order, that The Penthouse Theory and The 8 Penthouse Collective could only appear by an attorney admitted
9 to practice in this court. That was in boldfaced, solid cap 10 letters and sent to Mr. Leong. So Mr. Leong knows by reason of 11 that order that these entities may not appear except by an 12 attorney admitted to practice.

13 MR. LEONG: Your Honor --

14 THE COURT: Excuse me, sir, I'm speaking.

15 I further note that no notice of appearance was filed 16 by either entity by the date set in my order, which was 17 January 4th, 2023. And I also note that none of the three 18 defendants, including Mr. Leong, have answered the complaint in 19 this action.

20 Now, Mr. Leong, is there anything you wish to say?

21 MR. LEONG: With due respect, I do not have counsel to 22 advise me regarding this, and I have no knowledge prior to this 23 about court procedures. I was actually emailing many USA
24 lawyers to see if they can take up the case. It was the end of 25 the year, I could not get any response.

NlHGdonC

1 I'm here to represent my two entities as well; The 2 Penthouse Theory and The Penthouse Collective, because they 3 were registered as sole proprietors, proprietorship, meaning to 4 say that these do not have a -- separate legal entities and I
5 believe that they were one along with me, I am one. And so I
6 did not know about any -- that I had to be -- the two entities
7 has to be represented by an attorney.

8 And also, I didn't agree to the previous counsel
9 discharging himself because the reason for him discharging
10 himself was that he did not get paid. That is blatantly
11 untrue. I would like to clarify that I paid a sum of $40,000
12 USD, which was my life savings, for representing me on the 13 motion to dismiss. And I believe he represented to the Court
14 that I did not pay him. That is not true at all.

15 As for the instructions not to file the answer, I
16 was -- I actually explained to him that I was looking for other
17 alternatives, such as appealing the motion or settlement talks 18 instead of filing an answer to complaint. And given my 19 financial -- extreme financial limitations after the motion to 20 dismiss, I am unable to attend. I have physical classes in 21 Singapore, and I was unable to travel to New York just for the 22 case.

23 And currently, I am in settlement talks with the 24 plaintiffs' counsel, I'm try my best to do the responsible 25 thing, to show up. And I'm not sure that the US courts can

NlHGdonC

1 facilitate that. I understand you have given me until the end
2 of Wednesday, 18 January, 11:59 p.m. for an answer, and I'm not
3 sure the US courts can facilitate the settlement talks.

4 THE COURT: Anything else, Mr. Leong?

5 MR. LEONG: Your Honor, I believe that the plaintiff
6 brought me into this suit for -- because I'm completely not 7 connected to Jonathan Anand. I am from Singapore, as I
8 mentioned. I have never been to the US, never met any other
9 defendants. I don't believe I should be in this lawsuit. I'm 10 here to the court of whatever has happened. And this is by no 11 means my entering an appearance, but I do wish to do the 12 responsible thing.

13 I am still currently waiting on how I can do the 14 settlement talks. And I believe my website, The Penthouse
15 Theory, is extremely similar to the website that Jonathan Anand
16 has created, misleading people to think that we are one. And I
17 believe that the plaintiffs found -- say I was working for 18 Anand as an intern. I would like to state on the record that I
19 have zero connections. Again, I have never worked for him, 20 never spoke with him, never with him, I have never been to the 21 US. And I can prove this as a freedom of information speech as 22 well. I have nothing to do with Jonathan Anand who runs
23 Homeless Penthouse. And I believe that this is something that 24 is very, very important for me to state.

25 THE COURT: Thank you very much, sir.

NlHGdonC

1 I will note for the record that the motion to withdraw
2 filed by Mr. Wang has a certificate of service annexed to it,
3 which states that Mr. Wang served the motion to withdraw upon 4 Dylan Leong, The Penthouse Theory and The Penthouse Collective.
5 That was the motion that made the assertion that he was 6 directed not to file an answer and annexed a copy of an email
7 to Mr. Leong referring to the direction not to answer.

8 The Court did not immediately grant the motion to 9 withdraw. The Court waited to see if there was a response from 10 any of the defendants. No defendant responded to the motion to 11 withdraw. Then, and only then, it was granted. And the Court
12 put in the additional requirement that Wang had to serve a copy
13 of the order on the defendants. And he filed an affidavit four 14 days after the order indicating that he had so served the 15 defendants. And that order made it clear to anyone -- and 16 again, solid caps, boldface -- that the two entities are not 17 natural persons, and therefore, are not permitted to appear in 18 this court except through an attorney who is admitted to 19 practice in this court. At no time has anyone, up until today, 20 suggested that they are not entities. One who is of that 21 viewpoint would have taken care to make that point. Not even 22 made in the January 13th communication with the Court. Nowhere
23 made anywhere. And no request for an adjournment was filed
24 prior to the last business day before the conference.

25 If it is in fact the case that Mr. Leong is without

NlHGdonC

1 resources, is he asserting that he was with resources in 2 December when he was looking for counsel to represent him, but 3 that the change of circumstances has only occurred in recent 4 days? Because that I don't hear in his statement to the Court.

5 So the plaintiff is free to move for a default
6 judgment. For one thing, apart from the nonappearance of The 7 Penthouse Collective or The Penthouse Theory, they, like Dylan
8 Leong, have not answered the complaint, and their time to do so 9 has passed. In fact, I don't recall seeing anything in the 10 January 13th application requesting an extension of time to 11 answer the complaint.

12 With regard to contentions about whether this court
13 has in personam jurisdiction, I repeat, it was a 20-page 14 opinion and order, a very thorough opinion and order denying 15 the motion to dismiss on personal jurisdiction grounds. That 16 remains an order of the Court. And at the time of final 17 judgment in this case, the defendants have the right to appeal 18 that.

19 Now, it's my sincere hope that the parties can resolve
20 this and resolve this dispute amicably. And if they can do so 21 this week, that's all the better. But I'm not going to 22 restrict the plaintiff from proceeding with the motion. They 23 may be very well advised to settle the matter, close the matter
24 out and be done with it, rather than engaging in further rounds
25 of motion practice. So that's where I am.

NlHGdonC

1 Does the plaintiff have a case management plan for 2 remaining proceedings in this case?

3 MR. GLANC: Not one that has been discussed with the 4 appearing defendant.

5 THE COURT: What is being discussed?

6 MR. GLANC: I said, we don't have a case management
7 plan that has been discussed with the remaining defendant who 8 is appearing.

9 THE COURT: Why not?

10 MR. GLANC: Because we haven't discussed it, Judge.

11 THE COURT: Why haven't you? This is the initial 12 conference. Why not?

13 MR. GLANC: Because one of the attorneys -- the 14 attorney who is the principal on the case is on paternity
15 leave. He just had a child a week and a half ago.

16 THE COURT: When did Mr. Anand answer the complaint?

17 MR. GLANC: Mr. Anand answered the complaint -- I have 18 it here -- I think in July, late July; July 27th.

19 THE COURT: So why wasn't there discussion of a case
20 management plan then?

21 MR. GLANC: I'm not sure, Judge. I'm not sure, Judge.

22 THE COURT: Well, you are the plaintiffs' lawyer. How 23 much time do you need to complete discovery in this case?

24 MR. GLANC: I don't think the -- the out date is six
25 months, but I would request -- I think we may need a little

NlHGdonC

1 more, but I would request, because the principal attorney on 2 the case is not coming back to the office until March 1st
3 because he's on paternity leave, I would request that we add an 4 additional 45 days to that.

5 THE COURT: What's the defendant's position with 6 regard to the discovery period?

7 MR. CHAUBEY: Your Honor, to be precise, we had filed
8 our answer on 27th of July '22.

9 THE COURT: Please be seated plaintiffs' counsel.
10 This way, when I have only one person standing in the 11 courtroom, it is very clear only one person should be speaking.
12 That's why I have that rule.

13 Go ahead.

14 MR. CHAUBEY: Your Honor, you know the background of 15 the case by now. So many defendants were brought in. Our 16 still the opinion and stand is that there is no violation of 17 intellectual property involved in this case. It's only a case 18 of the retail reseller. I don't want to be a witness in the 19 case, but I have seen on many websites these products are being 20 sold at the wholesale and retail, and anybody can buy and sell
21 these products as a reseller from very reputed internet
22 marketing companies, like Alibaba and eBay.

23 Your Honor, we don't believe that there is a lot of 24 discovery we are looking for. We have pretty much everything 25 being provided as registered trademark numbers and all. So we

NlHGdonC

1 don't believe that it will be extended discovery. It will be
2 very short discovery on part of my clients.

3 THE COURT: Do you have a proposal you want to make to 4 me?

5 MR. CHAUBEY: Your Honor, within 45 days, we can
6 formulate -- and as I'm told by the counsel prior to this 7 conference, that the attorney who is handling the case for 8 plaintiff is on paternity leave, I will extend my courtesy and 9 to extend the time to they want. And then we can exchange our 10 interrogatories and deposition requests, if any. And after 45
11 days, after March 15, whatever comes and says, I will cooperate 12 and work with him. And then we can have depositions and 13 interrogatories exchanged, your Honor. I would say that it
14 should go somewhere near May 2023, your Honor.

15 THE COURT: And what date is the plaintiff proposing
16 for the close of fact discovery?

17 MR. GLANC: I would propose six months.

18 THE COURT: I heard you before. Plus 45 days.

19 MR. GLANC: Plus 45 days, yes.

20 THE COURT: I asked you what day you are proposing?
21 You want me to do it? You're not going to do it? Come on.

22 MR. GLANC: I think July, end of July, Judge, or 23 middle of August.

24 THE COURT: I'll make it August 11th.

25 Is there any expert discovery in this case?

NlHGdonC

MR. GLANC: Yes, there will be expert discovery.

THE COURT: I'll make the fact discovery period July 28 and expert discovery will be closed as of September 8th.

MR. GLANC: Judge, can I push everything forward one month; instead of July 28th, August 28th, and instead of September 8 make it October 8? Is that possible?

THE COURT: If there is a need to further extend it, I will consider an application. But that is a most generous period. Given the allegations in the complaint, this is not a big case. I don't understand it. Really, how many photographs are we talking about?

MR. GLANC: We're talking about a lot of items and now we have discovered --

THE COURT: How many photographs are we talking about?

MR. GLANC: Over a hundred items. And we have discovered that there were more items since the lawsuit was filed. In fact, recently, we discovered that.

We'll abide by the Judge's dates.

THE COURT: Can we have a date in late September, please, Flo.

THE DEPUTY CLERK: Yes. Make it October because we have a trial.

THE COURT: That's fine.

THE DEPUTY CLERK: October 3rd at 11:00 a.m.

NlHGdonC

1 THE COURT: So the issues of consent to further
2 proceedings before a magistrate judge are -- I have written 3 down TBD, meaning to be determined. The same with whether the 4 case is to be tried to a jury or not; TBD. Amended pleadings
5 may not be filed and additional parties may not be joined,
6 except with leave of the Court. Any motion to amend or motion
7 to join additional parties shall be filed within 30 days from 8 the date of this order. Initial disclosures shall be served in 9 14 days from the date of this order. Fact discovery closes
10 July 28, 2023. Expert discovery closes on September 8th, 2023.
11 And the length of trial is to be determined.

12 Plaintiffs shall file a motion for a default judgment
13 within 30 days. So you have 30 days to do that. And hopefully 14 and ideally, Mr. Leong will be able to settle this case with 15 the plaintiffs. And otherwise, the plaintiffs will have to 16 proceed with their motion for default judgment within 30 days
17 of today.

18 Is there anything further from the plaintiff?

19 MR. GLANC: Yes, Judge.

20 Just following fact disclosure, will the plaintiff
21 have an opportunity to amend, in case we discover things during 22 discovery that may require an amendment of the complaint?

23 THE COURT: If you heard a moment ago, I said that the 24 order provides that any motion to amend or motion to join
25 additional parties shall be filed within 30 days of this order.

NlHGdonC

1 So you will certainly have the defendants' additional -- you'll 2 have their initial disclosures in hand at the time, but that's 3 the order I'm setting.

4 MR. GLANC: Thank you, Judge.

5 THE COURT: So you have 30 days from today to move to 6 amend or to join additional parties. And we'll see what 7 happens with the motion if you make one.

8 Anything further from defendant Anand?

9 MR. CHAUBEY: Your Honor, our concerns are the same
10 that during the depositions and discovery at length, we might 11 come across that how and when the product was being sold
12 through which other entities, which we may have a counterclaim
13 on, a crossclaim against. And at that point, we would need to 14 make a motion to add third-party complaint or add certain other 15 parties which we may have a crossclaim against as defendant.

16 THE COURT: Well, the Court has set a deadline for 17 motions. If you wish to make a motion after that deadline,
18 then you have to show good cause under Second Circuit case law
19 and the plain text of Rule 16. And so that's the way the law
20 operates. I am setting a date, as I'm required to set a date, 21 for any motions to amend or to join additional parties, and 22 that's 30 days from today. You need good cause to modify that 23 at a later point in time.

24 MR. CHAUBEY: Understood, your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Mr. Leong, is there anything further from

NlHGdonC

1 you?

2 MR. LEONG: Your Honor, I just wanted to say that, for 3 the fact that my two entities are sole proprietorships, I
4 actually explain it to my previous counsel, that it seems like
5 he was negligent, he did not advise me adequately. And I do
6 not know US law procedures or any law procedures. I also did 7 not know that I could oppose the motion to discharge the 8 lawyer. But I do remember explicitly sending him an email to 9 say to stay on the case and not to discharge himself.

10 I would also like to state that I just emailed asking 11 for many US lawyers to see if they can do pro bono for me. But 12 as you can imagine, it's been very, very difficult, including 13 with the time difference I have with US.

14 Currently, as I've mentioned, I'm doing settlement
15 talks, and I think that is what I hope for. But I'm not sure
16 if that can be done with myself and the two entities as well.

17 THE COURT: Well, let me make it plain that one of the 18 grounds for default, it appears, is -- let's assume that The 19 Penthouse Theory and The Penthouse Collective are not separate 20 entities, that they're not entities, that they're a sole 21 proprietorship and basically the plaintiff has succeeded in 22 doing nothing more than suing you alone, if we proceed from 23 that assumption, you are still in default in answering the 24 complaint.

25 MR. LEONG: Yes, I understand.

NlHGdonC

1 THE COURT: I would say to you that -- and I'm not in 2 a position to give you legal advice -- but one might think that 3 you would want to cure your default and you should retain 4 counsel to advise you. I realize the difficulties, but the 5 Court has found for reasons explained at great length that 6 there is personal jurisdiction over you and over The Penthouse
7 Collective and The Penthouse Theory. That's already been 8 determined in this case. That's behind us.

9 So I wish you the best. I hope you are successful in 10 settling this case. And if you are not, you should consider
11 getting counsel or otherwise taking steps to cure any default
12 that has taken place in this case.

13 Do you understand, Mr. Leong?

14 MR. LEONG: Yes. Thank you.

15 THE COURT: You're quite welcome.

16 Anything else from the plaintiff?

17 MR. GLANC: No, Judge. I think that's it.

18 THE COURT: And nothing else from Mr. Anand?

19 MR. CHAUBEY: No, your Honor. Thank you.

20 THE COURT: Thank you all very much for coming in 21 today. Thank you, Mr. Leong. We are adjourned.

22 (Adjourned)
